
Robust DEG: FDR < 0.05, mean |log2FC| ≥ 1, same direction in all 3 datasets. The share outside the list is about the same for DEGs and background, so no association between list membership and patient-tissue expression was seen; it is not that the list misses these genes.